

Saiful Islam Shakib

I complete my Computer Science & Engineering graduate with a strong foundation in TCP/IP, routing/switching, and network security. I am seeking a NOC Engineer position to apply my hands-on experience in network monitoring with Wireshark and Nmap, and virtualized lab environments using VMware. I am highly motivated to provide technical support, ensure resolve complex connectivity issues within a fast-paced enterprise or ISP environment. My goal is to leverage my proficiency in Linux and Python automation to contribute to reliable IT operations and Management .
