ABOUT ME

A highly motivated, confident, and responsible professional with a strong background in statistics and leadership. Known for excellent time management, communication, and problem-solving skills, I thrive in both independent and team-based environments. With experience in founding and managing Sirater Pathshala, along with leadership skills developed at Bangladesh National Cadet Corps, I perform well under pressure. I am passionate about continuous learning and eager to contribute to an organization's success by leveraging my skills and adaptability.
